

RedberryReads: A Newsletter From Redberry Books

In this issue...

What Kind of Reader Are You?

Meet These Authors
Book Buzz

Summer Hours

Monday 10-4
Tues-Sat 10-7
Sunday 10-2

Extended hours on event weekends.

Redberry is always open online at:
www.redberrybooks.com

REDBERRY READS SUMMER 2016

July 7

"Marvelous Metamorphosis"
What happens to tadpoles and caterpillars?

July 14

"Sunny Summer Days"
What are your favorite summer activities?

July 21

"Puddle Jumping"
Celebrating rainy days.

Greetings!

As always, thanks for shopping your local independent book store.

WHAT KIND OF SUMMER READER ARE YOU?

As readers we're as varied as the books we choose. We asked a few customers if what, and how, they read in summer is different than any other time of the year.

We loved their answers, and you can see them below. Also included are a few book recommendations we think you'll like.

I read more paperbacks, so if I drop my book in the lake I'm not out $27! (Linda)

The Space Between Sisters

July 28

"Redbery Reads Around the Farm"

We'll meet at the Cable Community Farm to learn about the history of farming in N.Wisconsin, take a tour, and maybe even taste some weeds!

August 4

"Sleepytime for Bears"

Time to celebrate one of our favorite mammals before they curl up for the winter.

Come join the fun!

Storytimes are held at the Cable Natural History Museum

Author
Kerry Casey
To Visit Redbery!

Saturday, August 13th 10:30am-1:30pm

Meet Kerry and hear about his new book, *Slender Wish

by Mary McNear

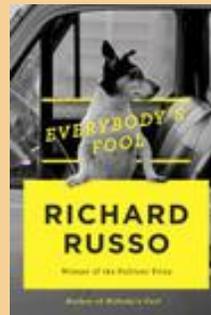

H is for Hawk
by Helen Macdonald

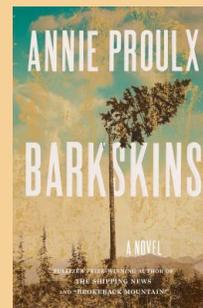

Click images to order

I'm in school during the year, so in summer I have more time. This is when I go for a bigger and longer book and maybe something more literary. (James)

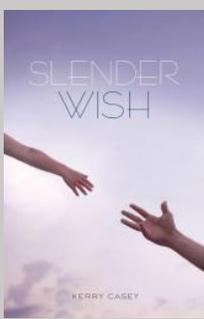

Everybody's Fool
by Richard Russo

Barkskins
by Annie Proulx

Click images to order

Click image to order

From the author of the popular books, Fall to Grace and Singer, Slender Wish brings this 3-book series to a close.

In it a broken man discovers that hope and despair are only one small miracle apart.

Order your copy here, order on line, or pick up a copy at the store.

Redbery Book Clubs In July

Men's Discussion Group

Thurs, July 7 - 6:30

Tinkers

by Paul Harding

T.H.U.R.S.

Thurs, July 14 - 3:00

The Little Paris Bookshop

by Nina George

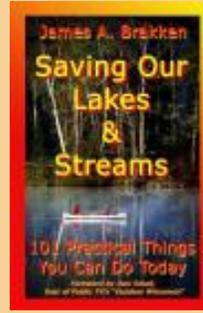

Word of Mouth

Tues, July 19 - 6:30

I look for new books from local authors. (Philip)

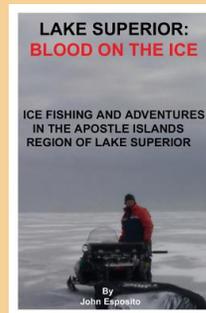

Saving Our Lakes & Streams

by Jim Brakken

Lake Superior: Blood on the Ice

by John Esposito

Click images to order

I choose lighter subject matter in the summer because we have lots of company at the cabin most of the time, and it's hard to concentrate. (Elizabeth)

Britt-Marie Was Here

by Fredrik Backman

Click image to order

I read more in winter, because there are so many other activities in the summer. Either way, it's usually fiction. (Kelly)

Before the Fall

by Noah Hawley

H is For Hawk
Helen MacDonald

Chapter and Verse

Wed, July 20- 4:00
The Night Gardener
by the Fan Brothers and Pax
by Sara Pennypacker

Get a Clue! Mystery

Book Club
Mon, July 11 - 6:30
The Informationist
by Taylor Stevens

Memoirs in the Morning
Wed, Aug 31 - 10am
Just Mercy
by Bryan Stevenson

All are welcome to join this new book discussion group!

LET THE GAMES BEGIN!

New and super fun!

Double Shutter

Addictive adding game of chance and strategy

Niya

The Little Paris Bookshop

by Nina George

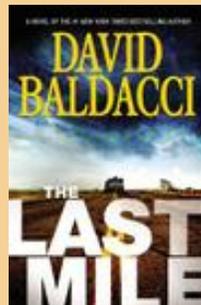

Click images to order

My book choices never change - I like political espionage and thrillers. (Bill)

The Last Mile

by David Baldacci

Goodbye to the Dead

by Brian Freeman

Click images to order

Books that are light and funny - like Bill Bryson's. (Terry)

A strategy game in The Garden of Conspiracy

Fastrack

Disc-shooting game filled with non-stop thrills & sporting action

Lots more games in store.
Stop by!

HAVING THE FREEDOM TO READ AND THE FREEDOM TO CHOOSE IS ONE OF THE BEST GIFTS MY PARENTS EVER GAVE ME.
JUDY BLUME
AUTHOR OF FOREVER

15% OFF ALL HARD COVER BEST SELLERS and
FREE SHIPPING.

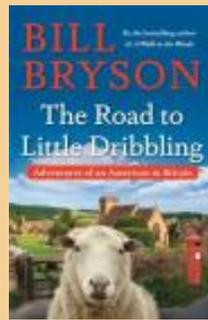

Every day.

Stay in touch with updated event info, book love, and special sales.

The Road to Little Dribbling

by Bill Bryson

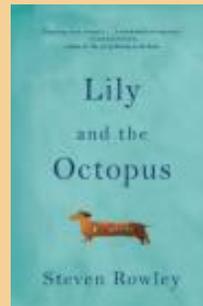

Click image to order

Something that makes me really sad that I've come to the last page. (Michelle)

Lily and the Octopus

by Steven Rowley

Click image to order

Our common ground is the love of reading. Enjoy your summer with that great book!

Book Buzz

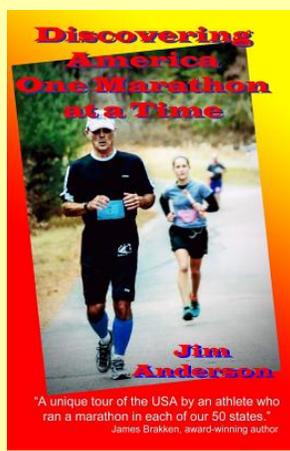

COME MEET THESE AUTHORS!

Jim Anderson will be at Redbery

Saturday, July 9th, 2-5pm

Meet the man who did it...

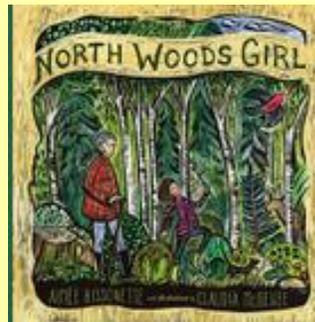

Discovering America One Marathon at a Time

Click image to order

2016 Award Winning Book and Author of North Woods Girl
by Aimee Bissonette

Aimee will be at Redbery
Saturday, July 16th
2:00pm

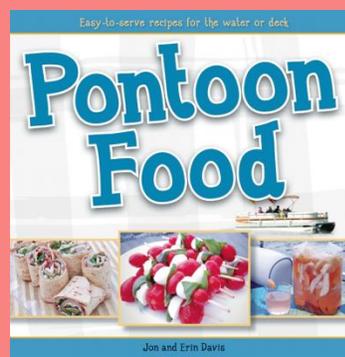

Click image to order

The 2015 Sigurd F. Olson winner for children's literature tells the story of a young girl's visit to her grandma's north woods home, and celebrates the treasures of our natural surroundings.

A terrific cabin book and keepsake.

...Bery Delicious

PONTOON FOOD
by Jon and Erin Davis

Click image to order

Chicken Satay Skewers

Meat

6, boneless skinless chicken thighs, cut into large thin sheets (about 2 pieces per thigh).

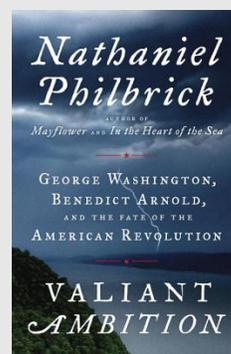

Marinade

2 cloves garlic, minced
1-2 hot chilis (such as Thai, serrano or jalapenos, depending on your preferred level of spiciness), minced
1 (1-inch) piece fresh ginger, peeled and minced
1/2 tsp dried turmeric
1 tsp ground coriander
1 tsp ground cumin
3 tbsp soy sauce
3 tbsp fish sauce
1/4 cup rice vinegar
A few drops of sesame oil
1 tbsp brown sugar
1/4 cup peanut butter

Combine marinade ingredients in a large bowl. Coat chicken in marinade, cover and refrigerate for 4 hours or overnight. The following day, soak skewers in water for 1 hour (weigh down with a plate to submerge). Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Place two pieces of chicken on each skewer. Place skewers on a baking sheet covered with aluminum foil and coated with canola oil. Bake chicken for 10 minutes, flip skewers and bake for an additional 20-25 minutes. Bake another 15 minutes until chicken is brown and crisp on the edges. Serve hot or cold.

Guys Talk Books

VALIANT AMBITION
George Washington, Benedict Arnold, and the Fate of the American Revolution
by Nathaniel Philbrick

Click image to order

Reviewed by Kevin Horrocks

Philbrook has again written a terrific book of American history where truth is stranger than fiction, and more interesting. George Washington struggles to lead the Continental Army against the professional English Army on land, and the English Navy warships inland, on rivers and lakes. He must also deal with the politics and personalities of the newly created American government, which at times seems a lot less honorable than facing the Redcoats.

This is the backdrop to the story of Washington and one of the most heroic, successful generals, Benedict Arnold. A difficult, complex leader who helped save the new American nation, but ultimately betrays it. This is history told, warts and all, which can give the reader some new perspective on our Founding Fathers and what it took to begin the process of becoming the United States.

Dear Redbery friends,

*Authors and independent bookstores enjoy their own mutual admiration society. Redbery hosted an evening with author Peter Geye, whose new book, Wintering, was released this month to great reviews. As Peter put it, "Writers could not exist without independent bookstores," and we are forever grateful for their immense talents that allow us to bring exciting reading to our customers...the people who really make our lives in books possible. Thank you, everyone, for keeping the circle strong. We look forward to welcoming Jim Anderson, Aimee Bissonette, James Brakken, Kerry Casey and James Campbell over the coming months.*

Sincerely and with gratitude,

Maureen and the rest of the staff

read@redbery books.com

www.redberybooks.com

715 798 5014